

me time - Mrs. Cabot is going to ask them to A.Z. here to lunch on Friday - A.Z. was saying about you today, how dear a sweet you were, and perhaps you would come again so as to go to Indy's - but I told her I didn't believe we should get there this year. Good night with love from Sarah -

How dear of Mrs. Lyson to come and to bring the flowers!

Wednesday night
Bride's Crossing.

Dear Mary I shall send such a short letter that it is not worth sending! - but you will like to have the news of my arrival and find Mrs. Cabot pretty well - we have had a great evening, all the candles in the parlor but one were promptly snuffed right out after supper and we were arranged convenient for hearing in our chairs and set in!! This now ten - I went to Boston with Mrs. Field by the 1.40 & we came back on the 4.30 my foot is really all well and I went to the corner bookstore to do an errand & that was about all. The hour and a half went by quickly - I think we were pretty late getting to town, but I don't know why - we seemed to speed right along but it was ten minutes of three when we got there I believe.

- I am glad you like the story - the first stretch is a little heavy yet, but it has to tell certain things and get them done with. There are no more long pulls of history like that - Dicky Dana was reported to have returned and the girls were going over there to supper tonight.
So I suppose they will have
